Fund Manager Commentary

The first quarter ended with the main UK indices in negative territory. The FTSE 100, FTSE 250 and FTSE small cap returned -2.42%, -1.15% and -1.95% respectively in March. The month saw a low key Spring Statement by the Chancellor. A Brexit transition was agreed with the EU which helped Sterling strengthen against the Dollar. The Monetary Policy Committee voted 7-2 to keep interest rates at 0.5%, although mention was made of pay growth picking up and inflation being above target which makes a May rate rise likely. Shire rose on the back of Takeda Pharmaceutical's announcement that it was considering making an offer. Mortgage Advice Bureau rose on the back of strong results. Falls in Clarkson, 4imprint, Mears and WPP impacted performance. In terms of portfolio activity we started a new position in Flowtech Fluidpower, a distributor of technical fluid power products and we also took part in the IPO of JTC, a provider of investment management services. We increased our positions in Future PLC, Applegreen and Marlowe. We sold out of Free Agent and CVS. We reduced our position in Mears and Ethernity Networks and took profits in Scapa, Dotdigital and Fevertree.
